

THE GOD WHO SAVES

When your mistakes are exposed and laid bare before you, ashamed and alone you have nowhere to turn. What if the only one who had every right to judge you didn't, and instead offers you a way out?

One day while Jesus was teaching, a crowd gathered around him. As he was speaking, some religious leaders brought a woman they had caught in the act of adultery. They put her in front of the crowd and said to Jesus, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of adultery. Our religious law says to execute her by stoning. What do you say?" They were trying to trap Jesus into saying something they could use against him, but Jesus didn't answer right away. He stooped to write something in the dusty ground, and as they kept demanding an answer, he finally stood up and said, "All right, stone her. But let those who have never sinned throw the first stone!"

When the accusers heard this, they slipped away one by one, beginning with the oldest, until only Jesus was left behind with the woman. Jesus said to her, "Where are your accusers? Didn't even one of them condemn you?" "No, Master," she said. And Jesus said, "Neither do I. Go and sin no more."

Come and experience the grace of God, through Jesus Christ, that leads to holiness in him.
